DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE

DUDHNOI COLLEGE (AUTONOMOUS), DUDHNOI, GOALPARA, ASSAM, 783124

Celebration of Constitution Day

Organised by the Department of Political Science, Dudhnoi College (Autonomous)

Date: 26th November, 2026

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Venue: Conference Hall, Dudhnoi College (Autonomous)

The Department of Political Science, Dudhnoi College (Autonomous), celebrated Constitution Day on 26th November, 2026, at 10:00 a.m. in the Conference Hall of the college with the objective of creating awareness about the Indian Constitution, its fundamental values, principles and significance among students. The programme commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by Dr. Lalit Chandra Rabha, Principal of the college, in front of the portrait of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. This was followed by a mass reading of the Preamble to the Constitution of India by all the teachers and students present at the programme, reaffirming their commitment to the constitutional ideals of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity. Following the mass reading, Dr. Lalit Chandra Rabha, Principal of the college, delivered an address highlighting the importance of the Indian Constitution and the relevance of observing Constitution Day. He emphasised the need to uphold constitutional values and principles in our everyday lives.

Four students of the Department of Political Science, namely Rahul Rabha, Krishnakshi Nath, Divanisha Kalita and Isilina R. Sangma, also delivered speeches on different aspects of the Indian Constitution. Their presentations covered topics such as the historical background of the Constitution, the values enshrined in the Preamble, the significance of Fundamental Duties and the importance of celebrating Constitution Day. The students' active participation reflected their understanding and appreciation of the constitutional ideals. The programme also featured an insightful lecture by Dr. Prasanta Sarma, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Dudhnoi College (A), who attended as the invited speaker. He elaborately discussed various relevant aspects of the Indian Constitution and highlighted the contemporary relevance of constitutional principles and the significance of Constitution Day. His deliberation provided valuable insights into the role of the Constitution in strengthening democracy and promoting an inclusive and just society.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks offered by Bondita Borbora, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science. Faculty members and students of the college actively participated in the celebration, making the occasion meaningful and enriching. The programme served as an important platform for reflecting on the ideals and principles of the Indian Constitution and reaffirming the collective responsibility of citizens to uphold its spirit.

