

TRAINING ON VERMICOMPOSTING & MUSHROOM CULTIVATION

Course offered by Department of Botany, Dudhnoi College in collaboration with
Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Dudhnoi, Goalpara

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

1. To create awareness about the importance of vermicomposting and mushroom cultivation among common people.
2. To provide technical support and skill development for vermicomposting and mushroom cultivation.
3. To encourage the system of organic farming by improving the soil health without disturbing the smooth functioning of the ecosystem.
4. To utilise the knowledge of vermicomposting and Mushroom Cultivation in the contemporary world where we all are running after organic diet.
5. To impart knowledge on waste management and to explore economic potential from wastage.
6. To make aware the local community about the importance and conservation of soil.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- a. The trainee must be an Indian Citizen with atleast HSLC passed or passed in equivalent Board examination.
- b. Interested farmers (Indian Citizen) are eligible for this course
- c. Participant will have to attend all theory classes , practical classes and field works

COURSE CO-ORDINATION COMMITTEE

Advisor

Dr. Lalit Ch. Rabha
Principal, Dudhnoi College

Convenor

Mr. Surjya Kr. Swargiary
Associate Professor & Head
Department of Botany
Contact No. 9957241452

Co-ordinator

Dr. Dipali Deka
Associate Professor
Department of Botany
Contact No. 9435342696

Duration of the course is minimum
40 hours classes including field visit.

Class will start from 27th June, 2022

FOR REGISTRATION
Contact 9435342696
9957241452

