

CERTIFICATE COURSE ON AQUACULTURE

Course offered by Department of Zoology, Dudhnoi College in collaboration with
Grameen Sahara (NGO), Chhaygaon

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

1. Motivate the educated youth for scientific fish culture and self employment
2. Provide technical support and skill development for fish culture and non Piscian aquaculture.
3. Employment generation through self employment and small scale farming
4. Entrepreneur development through fish and fishery product
5. Economic development of the society and contribute to the nutrition and health management of common peoples.
6. Sustainable utilization of wetlands and contribute to the restoration of natural environment.

COURSE CO-ORDINATION COMMITTEE

Advisor

Dr. Lalit Ch. Rabha
Principal, Dudhnoi College

Convenor

Mr. Phulendra Kumar Sarma
Associate Professor
Department of Zoology
Contact No. 9706314202

Co-Ordinator

Dr. Tapan Ch. Kalita
Associate Professor
Department of Zoology
Contact No. 9435399760

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- a. The trainee must be an Indian Citizen with atleast HSLC passed or passed in equivalent Board examination.
- b. Undergraduate students
- c. Interested farmers (Indian Citizen) are eligible for this course
- d. Participant must have to attend all theory classes , practical classes and field works

DURATION

Duration of the course is 15 days and the total 45 (One hour in each class) classes including field visit.

FOR REGISTRATION

Visit College Website www.dudhnoicollege.ac.in
Or Contact 9435399760