

Report on Sanitary Napkin Distribution

On 13th August, 2025, Women Study Centre, Dudhnoi College organized a Sanitary Napkin Distribution Programme for the girl students of the college, including the residents of the Dudhnoi College Girls' Hostel.

The programme aimed to promote menstrual hygiene, raise awareness on women's health issues and ensure easy access to essential sanitary products. During the event, the members of the Women Study Centre addressed the students on the significance of maintaining proper hygiene during menstruation and encouraged open discussion to remove social taboos associated with the subject.

The initiative was well received by the students, who expressed gratitude for the support and concern shown by the college authority. The programme successfully reflected the institution's commitment towards the well-being, health, and empowerment of its female students.

