

DUDHNOI COLLEGE
Celebration of Nonviolence Week

The United Nations declared the birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi, i.e. 2nd October as “the International Day of Nonviolence” since 2007 in order to preserve and promote the culture of nonviolence. At a time, when the world is facing political terror, when egocentrism is hailed as virtue, where tolerance is at the brink of extinction, where violence is deemed as infotainment; the practice of nonviolence is once again felt strongly today.

As a Higher Educational Institute, Dudhnoi College takes it as responsibility to educate our students with Gandhi’s ideas of peace and nonviolence. In this context, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of our college is planning to organise a series of activities among the students of our college from September 29 to October 04, 2023 as Nonviolence Week.

All the students of Dudhnoi College are therefore, requested to participate in these activities as per the following schedule:
