

Financial Literacy Awareness Programme

Dated: 22.12.2021

Today on 22nd December, 2021 Wednesday, an awareness programme on financial literacy is held by Women's Study Centre, Dudhnoi College in collaboration with North East Small Finance Bank, Khara Pt II, Dudhnoi and Assam State Rural Livelihood Mission, Kuchdhuwa Tribal Development Block. The meeting is held at the premise of Puranibhita Village Panchayat Office. The main objective of this programme is to create awareness on financial investment and different financial schemes of government specially for rural women.

In this programme, Mr. Pradip Kumar Nath, zonal manager of NESFB, Goalpara zone and Spondon Sharma, cluster business manager of Goalpara talked in details about different financial schemes available for rural women and for self help groups.

Mr. Amal Bezbaruah (branch manager of NESFB Khara Pt II branch, Dudhnoi), Mr. Dharani Talukdar (zonal co-ordinator of NESFB, Goalpara zone), Bondita Borbora (co-ordinator of Women's Study Centre, Dudhnoi College), Dr. Parul Nath (Vice-principal, Dudhnoi College) and other professors from Dudhnoi College like Dr. Manash Lochan Das, Mr. Dilip Hazarika, Dr. Jaya Das, Ms. Linso Timungpi, Mr. Mondeep Bailung were present. Almost 60 women from nearby villages attended the programme.